Cultural Wealth

Read each of the following statements. If a statement is true for you, mark it with an "X". Once you are finished, count the total number of advantages that you have.

Aspirational Capital

- ____ Despite my family's level of education, there was a belief I could graduate from college.
- ____ It was instilled in me that no matter where I came from, I can succeed in school and my career.
- ____ I feel like I can accomplish my goals because of the perseverance of my community.
- ____ My successes were celebrated by family.

Familial Capital

- ____ Pride in my culture was instilled in me even though it's not represented in the mainstream.
- ____ Our family history is celebrated and actively discussed regularly.
- ____ I have lived in a multigenerational household.
- ____ I found a chosen family based on acceptance and authenticity.

Social Capital

- ____ I was able to reach out to people with a similar social identity to myself for help to find opportunities.
- ____ I did not feel like I was alone in attaining a difficult goal because I had the support of my community.
- ____ I feel a sense of connection with others who share similar identities to myself.

Linguistic Capital

- ____ I grew up learning more than one language
- ____ I have had to help interpret different documents for my family/friends.
- ____ I can bridge cultural gaps when I am speaking in different languages.
- ____ I am able to code switch, or select different expressions or ways of talking around different groups

Resistant Capital

- ____ I have learned to focus on cultivating joy even when people with shared identities are being targeted.
- ____ I advocate for better conditions for my community because there is a history of resistance I can call upon.
- ____ I challenge misconceptions or stereotypes about myself or my community.

Navigational Capital

____ I was able to navigate legally changing my gender markers with help from an LGBTQ+ friend or organization.

____ I learned how to navigate the education system through the support of a teacher, family member, or mentor with a similar identity.

____ I learned to assert myself to support a friend or family member through the health system.

Reflection questions:

- 1. How did this feel?
- 2. What was missing or not included?

Created by Heather Kennedy & Daniel Martinez, Colorado School of Public Health Work based on Tara J. Yosso (2005) Whose culture has capital? A critical race theory discussion of community cultural wealth, Race Ethnicity and Education, 8:1, 69-91, DOI: 10.1080/1361332052000341006