

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Colorado Access Choice complies with applicable federal civil rights laws and does not exclude or otherwise discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, national origin (including limited English proficiency and primary language), sex, gender identity, age, disability, or religion, or any other protected category.

Colorado Access Choice provides, free of charge, reasonable modifications for individuals with disabilities and appropriate auxiliary aids and services, including qualified interpreters for individuals with disabilities and information in other formats (large print, braille, audio, etc.), and translated materials, when such modifications, aids, and services are necessary to ensure accessibility and an equal opportunity to participate to individuals with disabilities.

Colorado Access Choice also provides language assistance services, including electronic and written translated documents and oral interpretation, free of charge and in a timely manner, when such services are a reasonable step to provide meaningful access to an individual with limited English proficiency.

If you need reasonable modifications, auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, contact:
